Meet the Director

Dr. Colleen Berry, Instructor and Associate Director, Center for Asian Studies, will direct the program. Dr. Berry has lived and worked in various cities around China and Taiwan for several years.

In cooperation with CU’s Study Abroad Office, she will choose the program participants, lead a pre-program orientation, teach the course, and act as resident director in China. She will be available in case of emergency.
Beijing, Xi’an, Shanghai, & Hangzhou

• Beijing: Traditional and modern capital of China
• Xi’an: Ancient capital & emerging megacity
• Shanghai: China’s most modern city with a nostalgia for its past
• Hangzhou: One of China’s “Paradises on Earth”
Academics

• Program locations are ideal for gaining firsthand knowledge on the ways modernity has affected each city.

• Examine the cities through film, literature, popular culture, and social sciences.

• Three preparatory classes held in Boulder before the program.

• Daily schedule in China: Site visits in the mornings, class meetings in the afternoons.
